We have reserved Mayberry Campground, 114 Byron Bunker Lane, Mt Airy, NC 27030. Phone 336-789-6199. Check out campground website below. (The campground is the former Chang and Eng Bunker's (famous Siamese twins) homestead, their home is still on the property.)

The campground has blocked off 15 sites all with full hookups. The rate is $40 per night with taxes and fees. Members can come early or extend their stay if they like. We will be arriving on Thursday 4/21 to be there to greet everyone. To make a reservation either use the website above or call the campground. They will hold these sites until 3/24/2022. After that you can still make a reservation but may not be with the group. When making reservations let them know you are with the TrailManor TrailBlazers Appalachian Chapter as reserved by Rick Hale.

There is a lot to do in this area. We will organize a trip to Pilot Mountain on Saturday Morning for anyone that would like to go. You can drive to the top and take a very short walk from the parking lot to see the spectacular views, and for those that are a little more adventurous there is a trail that goes to the very top of the mountain. Saturday afternoon will let everyone explore downtown Mt Airy (be sure to check out Miss Angels for delicious baked goodies and Ice cream), or take a tour in an old police car and see the town that the TV show Andy Griffith of Mayberry was based on. Along with his childhood home, enjoy seeing Floyd's barber shop, the old police station like on the show, Snappy lunch, and other sites.

We will gather at one of the campground pavilions at 5 pm for a potluck supper. Bring your favorite dish, your plates and eating utensils and whatever you would like to drink. There are electric hookups for crockpots. There will be a brief meeting after the meal to elect an official director and assistant director of our chapter and to decide when and where we would like to hold the next rally.

If you do not have a name tag, please email Rick Hale or Jude Chauvette with your name as you would like it to appear, and we will have your name tag ready for you at the rally.

Rick's email haleriju@gmail.com or Jude's at Judeman@comcast.net.
